Today's Sermon Outline

The Lion and The Lamb
Revelation 5:1-8

Of all the images used to describe Jesus Christ in the New Testament, the two in our passage are perhaps most powerful, and most full of mystery. Let us explore how Jesus is like a Lion, and how Jesus is like a Lamb.

1. How is Jesus like a Lion?

- a. Jesus is King, not just of this world, but of the whole creation. A king is powerful, the most powerful in whatever realm he reigns. Just like the lion in the animal world (known as the king of the jungle), Jesus is the One Who reigns supreme over all animate and inanimate creation (all people, and all things, are under His authority).
- b. Jesus, the King, will protect and vindicate His family. If you belong to the realm and family of this King, nothing can happen to you without His permission; and, whatever happens to you will turn out for your good, and His glory. You are safe from your enemies with Jesus.

- c. Jesus, the King, will punish His enemies. All who oppose His plan, and harm His people, will meet with His ferocious justice in eternity.

2. How is Jesus like a Lamb?

- a. We are told that Jesus, the Lamb, was as a Lamb that had been slain. Jesus is the sacrificial Lamb Who died in place of sinners, to remove the wrath of God and justify us. God made Jesus, Who had no sins, to be sin in place of you and me. God did this so that you, me, and all who trust in Him, might become the very righteousness of God, in union with Jesus. This is the Gospel message, our only source of hope. It's the great exchange.
- b. Jesus is like a Lamb in His humility. Even though Jesus is Lord, King, a Lion, He also came and humbled Himself in His life of servanthood and compassion, and His death on the cross.
- c. Jesus is like a Lamb in His obedience to the Father's will for Him. Jesus followed God's purpose for His life from start to finish. In all of these He sets an example for us, His followers.

Application questions

1. Has Jesus manifested Himself as a Lion in your life in any specific ways? What are some of the ways?
2. Has Jesus manifested Himself as a Lamb in your life in any specific ways? What are some of the ways?
3. How can you tell others about how Jesus is like a Lion and a Lamb? Are there people in your life who might take great comfort knowing that the Lord is powerful like a Lion, and also humble like a Lamb
